From the Rector

Dear Friends,

Now in my second year, I think it might be helpful to say a few words about how we deliver pastoral care. No system in this area is fool proof but I think we have now established a team of people who work hard at looking after members of the congregation and those who may simply be adherents but still receive care from us.

We have a 'Visiting Co-ordinator,' Sheila Baker (phone number in the back of the Magazine) and Sheila does a very competent job visiting, particularly those on the sick list. Sheila gives regular reports to Kevin and myself, keeping us abreast as to how people are.

Kevin and Joy regularly visit members of the congregation as well as keeping in touch with those who attend their Bible study group. They have run the study group for almost a decade and Kevin was the chief pastor during the last interregnum. Both have considerable knowledge of the needs of the congregation and I have often drawn on this over the past year.

As a priest I obviously offer a sacramental ministry and I would usually be called upon for, 'last rites,' when a person is coming to the end of their earthly pilgrimage. Anna and I are still making our way round the congregation with home visits and it will take us at least another year before we have visited all who wish us to do so.

A request from myself – it would be very helpful for me when asked to visit, to have that on an email or phone message. If a request on a Sunday morning is backed up by an email it's much easier to get the details in the diary.

We now have sixteen Eucharistic Ministers, two of whom regularly take the Reserved Sacrament to the sick. Those licensed to administer Communion are also authorized for official pastoral care, most obviously to the sick and elderly.

Last but by no means least, I want to stress that care for each other is something we can all participate in. This isn't just desirable but part of our response to God's call, which started at our baptism, when we became a member of the Church. It may be as simple as welcoming a visitor into St. Michael's.

We give thanks that our community has a reputation for being a warm, friendly and caring congregation. May we always look out for the other, particularly a stranger in our midst.

News

Many thanks to Chris Packard for the excellent photos on the cover and in the 'Images' section of this edition of Dom's first anniversary at St. Michael's. All our readers are asked to consider joining the Choir if you can hold a tune. We still need more volunteers for church cleaning as each volunteer is being put under too much pressure at present. Lots of news this month about pilgrimages and retreats.

Vestry Report

The Vestry met on Tuesday 2nd July and began with opening prayers.

RECTOR'S OPENING REMARKS: The Rector presented his 'opening remarks' and said that his first 11 months had been a really positive experience. St Michael's is a notably hard-working congregation. People get involved, perhaps the military ethos prevalent in the community has something to do with it.

DIOCESAN MATTERS: THE DIOCESE. The Primus, Bishop Mark Strange, retains oversight of the episcopacy and the Synod Clerk is the key point of contact for routine matters.

NEXT BISHOP. The College of Bishops, in consultation with the Electoral Synod will select the next Bishop of Glasgow & Galloway. We should expect a new bishop by Christmas.

INTERIM PRIEST. Dom Ind has been appointed Interim Priest for St Augustine's Dumbarton and St Mungo's Alexandria. The role entails participation in vestry meetings and 'rites of passage' services. St Michael's won't be affected apart from the Rector occasionally being away e.g. officiating at a Sunday morning baptism in the autumn.

ST MICHAEL'S: VISITING. We are a large congregation with significant numbers on the periphery. Sheila Baker's contribution to visiting was gratefully acknowledged; the routine, including the team bringing communion, works well. If someone hasn't been attending St Michael's for a while and needs a visit, or communion, the Rector, or Sheila, need to know.

CONGREGATION. There are often new faces evident, which is good. The need for sensitivity in the manner of welcome is recognized. Church coffee after the Sunday morning service is a very effective medium for welcoming new people.

OUTREACH. In addition to our excellent website we are now up on 'Facebook'. There is to be a 'Rector's video'.

FUTURE EVENTS: RETREAT. Tentative plans are coming together for a retreat 21-24 September 2020 at St Beuno's (St Asaph in Wales). Probably for around 20 people. Iona was also mentioned as a venue.

PILGRIMAGE. A pilgrimage is envisaged in early August 2021 on St Magnus Way (Orkney).

FINANCIAL MATTERS. The Honorary Treasurer reported that our accounts are running smoothly with no unusually large bills since April. Our Premium account contained £40,122 and our Current account contained £21,754. Several donations had been received; one of £120 to help with the costs of our new Liturgy Books and so far £325 to help with the cost of the new boilers.

A number of fundraising activities had taken place and as a result we have given £115 to Glasgow City Mission, £523 to Helensburgh Food Bank and £213 to MU overseas appeal. We also gave £328 to the Bishop's Lent Appeal (Malawi). The Hon Treasurer recommended that the Vestry must remain cautious about taking on too many financial commitments. There were significant bills to pay, notably the bill for the new boilers (£15,423 inc VAT) and the cost of the new rectory garage.

CHARITABLE GIVING. The Vestry reviewed our annual charitable giving to local causes. The Vestry noted that the sums being discussed represented the charitable giving from church funds. The St Michael's congregation also contributes to other charities through specific events. Last year our giving from church funds was £1,000 to the Beacon Trust, £2,000 to Contraflow and £300 to Helensburgh Food Bank. A previous vestry decision had decided to keep charitable giving from church funds to an affordable level, noting that church funds have to meet routine costs such as quota, stipend and building maintenance. The charities selected are all local. Support of Contraflow represents a commitment to do something for younger people in the community. Potential alternative causes were discussed. It was agreed that the status of Contraflow and The Beacon Trust would be checked to confirm their continued suitability for our support before we commit to following the pattern of previous years' giving.

PROPERTY MATTERS: BOILERS. The new boilers are in place. They should be more efficient than our old ones and the control system is easy to use.

The flues which run across the creche room ceiling still need to be cladded. The job will be done by a volunteer working party, which will save us money.

CRECHE ROOM. The north wall looks to have a damp problem, although it might just be residual damage to the plaster from flooding some years ago. It will be investigated. The room is rather insalubrious, future use is under consideration.

RECTORY WINDOWS. A contractor is to be engaged to tackle the repainting.

SERVERY ELECTRICAL SAFETY. The servery boiler had been left on recently. It could be dangerous to have electrical equipment left on inside the servery. The Property Manager is investigating a means of isolating electrical supplies or installing a fixed alarm system as possible solutions.

TOILETS. The plumber had had to be engaged to unblock the toilets. A children's toy had been the likely cause of the problem.

RECTORY GARAGE. The job is underway and will hopefully be completed by the end of August.

BELL TOWER. It was reported that the rendering/mortar is crumbling on the inside of the bell tower. The Property Manager investigated the matter and subsequently reported that the structure is sound, it was simply a bit of loose plaster.

RAEBURN MEMORIAL PLAQUE. The Raeburn Memorial Plaque commemorates the carved porch originally situated at the West door. The porch was moved to the North door when a new porch was installed at the West end in 1996, but the commemorative plaque is still on the West wall which is misleading. The Vestry agreed that the plaque should be moved.

CHURCH HEATING. The Vestry discussed the future heating policy for the church.

The Vestry agreed the importance of our open church policy. It is quite surprising how often people visit St Michael's for silent prayer or peaceful contemplation, which is a significant aspect of our ministry. In recognition of this it would be good to offer a warm church all week. This might also help to dry out our porous walls in winter.

There will however be an increased cost if we choose to run our boilers all week. If we are not careful, we might expect a six-fold increase in cost if we run our heating continuously because heat loss in the church is considerable.

The Vestry noted that John Sadden has significant relevant experience in this area and had written a paper reflecting previous experimentation with church heating.

The Vestry agreed that we should experiment with the new boiler, and that we should take advice from John Sadden to find the most cost-effective way to operate our new boilers.

MISCELLANEOUS ISSUES. SAFEGUARDING. Joan Thompson had written an excellent 'Safeguarding in 2019' article which had been included as an addendum to the July/August Messenger.

YOUNG CHURCH. The Vestry's attention had been drawn to the unacceptable state of the creche room which is no longer fit to be used. It was agreed that the Lower Hall should be used for the creche – when required. An assessment of the stock of children's toys is intended. The Vestry authorised a grant of up to £200 from church funds for replacements.

HEALTH & SAFETY RISK REGISTER. The risk register was last updated in July 2017. It is important that we have a Risk Register, if only as a means of demonstrating that we have considered Health & Safety for insurance purposes. Vsec, assisted by the Property Manager, had conducted a review, from which an updated register has been presented.

TRANSPORT TO CHURCH. An article had appeared in the July/August Messenger testing whether there is demand for a formal arrangement of lifts to church. There has been no response so far, but it is recognized that many have 'ad hoc' arrangements in place which work well.

The meeting closed with the Grace.

Next Meetings: Tuesday 3rd September, Tuesday 8th October (approve accounts), Tuesday 5th November, Sunday 8th December (AGM)

Two upcoming events which you may wish to attend are being held at the Renfield St Stephens Centre in Glasgow, 260 Bath St, G2 4JP: On September 7th at 10:00am-4:00pm Clean Air in Glasgow, Safe and Sustainable Travel

On September 18th at 7:00-9:00pm Same venue, a debate about "Where Money and the Environment Collide! Is there a future for Oil and Gas? Should churches be investing in it?"

This year the United Reformed Church decided to sell its shares in oil and gas companies, the Church of Scotland narrowly decided against disinvestment at the General Assembly and the Scottish Episcopal Church also reviewed its investment policy. We know that we have to take oil and gas out of the economy but how do we make a just transition to a low carbon economy and what is the role of finance? Join us to explore these questions. It should be a lively debate.

THE HEALTH BENEFITS OF ARRESTING CLIMATE CHANGE

One of the aspects of climate change that is least discussed is its effects on human health. There are quite wide-ranging health implications to climate change, increased number of deaths from heatwaves, natural disasters and food insecurity. When we read about climate change and health, those are the sorts of things we're usually presented with. Yes, it has all the dire warnings – the rise in temperature could reverse all the health gains of economic development in poorer countries. But it also makes a point I'd not heard before: "Tackling climate change could be the greatest global health opportunity of the 21st century".

One reason is that climate change is having an impact already, with increased extreme weather and natural disasters. All the recent floods and unseasonal weather should ring alarm bells. That has direct consequences for health and nutrition, and mental health considerations too. Another reason that climate change mitigation presents an opportunity for health is that it will require us to move beyond fossil fuels, and they are a big health risk in themselves. Cutting our coal and oil use would reduce air pollution and incidences of respiratory disease and lung cancer.

Clean cookstoves and fuels will not only protect the climate from carbon emissions, but also cut deaths from household air pollution—a major killer in low income countries. (Improving air quality would have economic benefits too. The OECD estimates that illness and premature death from air pollution costs the global economy £3.5 trillion every year). Changing the way we travel could mean a reduction in road traffic accidents.

Choosing a more active means of transport – walking or cycling – would cut rates of obesity, diabetes and heart disease. Insulating houses properly would reduce our exposure to both heatwaves and cold snaps, preventing many seasonal deaths among the more vulnerable. With an improved housing stock, we'd have fewer problems from mould and damp, and thus fewer allergies.

The consequence of not dealing with climate change are pretty dire for human health, especially in developing countries. But as it turns out, acting to prevent dangerous climate change wouldn't just fend off that threat. It could have substantial benefits in its own right.

St. Michael's Got Talent!

Saturday 5th October 2019. 1030am to 1630pm. Harvest Festival weekend.

This fund-raising event takes place in the Church and Hall on Saturday 5th October 2019. 1030 to 1630. It is the Saturday before Harvest Festival Sunday. It's all in aid of the Central Heating Fund to help pay for our new boiler...and didn't we need it?

The response to our appeal in July has been magnificent! We have 27 of the congregation displaying their talents, of which 40% are commercial and will be selling their expertise. The 'sellers' will be clearly identified and will display the percentage of their sales that will be given to the Fund. This varies between 10% and 100%.

We want all Exhibitors to have a presence at their stall all day, however we have to be realistic. For example, we all need breaks and food etc. In addition, Exhibitors will want to see the other stalls....and possibly make purchase(s). With that in mind we do need volunteers to help mind stalls. Volunteers do not have to be present all day. In addition, help will be needed by fit males on Friday evening and clearing up on Saturday from 1630. Names to Shaun Hoey at Church or tel: 01436 671718 or enquiries@homecraftrockinghorses.com

The Upper Hall will be allocated to about 6 Exhibitors plus light refreshments. The Church will host the majority of the Exhibitors. Most of these will be displaying their wares on wood boards placed over two or three pews. This is where fit men are needed to help on the Friday after Sue Ashby and her Flower Arranging team have finished decorating the Church.

I think we have the potential for a great social and fund-raising day. The setting could not be bettered in this town. The only Grade 1 listed building, beautifully decorated by the Flower Arrangers. Professional music on the organ and strings, played softly so we can still communicate! The chance to discover some very unusual and attractive talent by your fellow worshippers.

Please come along on the day. Bring family and friends and broadcast this event. It is only £3 entry fee. Entrances will only be by the Church in William St and West Princes St. There will be Donation Plates as well. Shaun Hoey (Social Committee)

North-West Region Pilgrimage

On Sunday August 11th five members of St. Michael's, including Dom and Anna, joined other members of the North-West Region and Dunblane residents in celebrating St. Blane's Day in a Dunblane pilgrimage. After Sunday Eucharist at St. Michael's we drove to St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Dunblane, where we were welcomed by the Rector, Rev. Nerys Brown.

After sandwiches in the Church Hall we all headed off towards St. Nicholas' Russian Orthodox Church. Well, most of us did but a small group took a little longer to leave St. Mary's and ended up following a group who were taking a short cut going directly to the Cathedral! Consultation with a smartphone allowed us to correct our course, walking back past St. Mary's and up the town to the Orthodox Church where we caught up with the rest of the pilgrim group as they left St. Nicholas' Church.

With stops at the Community Centre, Dunblane Cathedral, St. Blane's Church of Scotland, Dunblane Free Church and back to St. Mary's with readings, prayers and hymns at each location, even the endless rain could not dampen our spirits.

Afternoon tea at St. Mary's was much appreciated before our return to Helensburgh. An inspiring day.

St. Michael's Retreat – September 2020

Next year we are planning to go on retreat to the Bield at Blackruthven, Tibbermore, approximately 5 miles from Perth. In 1997 Robin & Marianne Anker-Petersen bought this property and created a centre for Christian Spirituality - it has a charming chapel; beautiful grounds and even a heated indoor swimming pool! This is truly an Episcopalian retreat house

Dom will lead the retreat on Benedict Spirituality using the book, Seeking God (The Way of St Benedict) by Esther de Waal. We will be looking at St Benedict's Rule and how it may apply to our everyday lives. You may have been on many retreats or may be this would be your first - whatever your experience this is open to anyone who may wish to go a wee bit deeper in their spiritual journey set in the context of a charming retreat centre.

Places are limited so please book now with Helen Gibson drhgibson@yahoo.co.uk if you wish to attend this retreat Tue 22nd to Fri 25th September 2020.

Cost : approx £250

Church Corner Library

Over past months, you may have noticed that the book stands and notice boards in the entrance corner of church have been given a subtle new look. The library books have been cleaned, sorted and listed, and labels now indicate where books on certain subjects may be found.

We are fortunate to have some excellent books in our library – well worth borrowing and reading – so I would encourage you to at least take a look, in the hope that a title or two may catch your interest.

I realise that, for many of us, books on the low-level shelves are difficult to reach and examine. Most weeks, I am hoping to place a section or two of our library books at a more accessible level on a table at the back of church, so that you can look through them. Should you wish to borrow a book, please simply sign your name and the date next to the title on the list nearby.

Please do consider borrowing a library book. They are there to be read and used, and Christian books can often guide, challenge and reassure us, and help us to grow in our Christian lives.

Friends of the Holy Land will be marking our 10th Anniversary with an ecumenical service at The Metropolitan Cathedral Church of Saint Andrew, 96 Clyde St, Glasgow G1 4JY followed by a reception at Eyre Hall next door on the 15th November. The service starts at 2.30 pm.

Archbishop Pierbattista Pizzaballa, Apostolic Administrator of the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem, and The Most Reverend Suheil Dawani, Anglican Archbishop in Jerusalem, will be supported by The Most Reverend Philip Tartaglia the Metropolitan Archbishop of Glasgow at this event.

Join us to pray together for our mission and understand how the daily conditions of life in the Holy Land have in fact deteriorated over the past 10 years. Despite this, UK Christians can take together small, simple steps to continue to make a difference, sharing actions, words and donations.
